

Equity Boot Camp: Healing a Broken System

Morning focus: Honoring our Native American students, families and colleagues.

- Hear stories from our Native American community about interacting with DPS.
- Build deeper relationships within our communities.
- Honor the experiences and voice of our Native American youth.

Afternoon focus: Impacts of institutional bias and racism

- Honor and understand the history of public education.
- Understand how race and bias contribute to building systemic organizational culture.
- Create individual and organizational action plans.
- Design and use accountability processes.

Session Dates:

8 a.m. to 4 p.m.
April 18 or April 19
PPA Event Center

Register:

SchoolNet: Search EBC1617
under Educator Development

LS (PLS): Bit.ly/ebc2017

Questions: DPSequity@dpsk12.org

“Equity Boot Camp is designed to unpack institutional bias and racism, meet new people and build relationships. Join us for deep conversations and a celebration of our Native American students, families and colleagues.” - Bill de la Cruz, Director of Equity and Inclusion

Supported by:

Equity Boot Camp provides an opportunity to build skills and deepen the ability to infuse equity, inclusion and culturally responsive practices throughout DPS.

Substitute teacher pay will be provided.